If you want your bread bakery to be successful, then you need to create a brand mark that is mouth-watering, scrumptious and delectable.

Below mentioned are some famous bread bakeries and their palatable bread bakery logo designs:

1. Della Fattoria:

Here, all breads are prepared with organic flour and sea salts and are baked in wood burning ovens. Their business mark is text based and simple. It consists of the company name in straight, white colored fonts. The text is crafted with slightly jarred edges which gives it an informal and antique look.

2. Bread alone:

This company also boasts organic and handmade breads. Their emblem consists of the business name in irregular fonts. The name is accompanied with an image of a hand that is stretched palm out with an image of weeds in it. The prominent colors in the image are different shades of brown that relates it to the product.

3. The Denver Bread Company:

Their monogram is crafted in dull golden color with a maroon background. It consists of the business name in straight fonts that is encased in a rectangle with intricate designs. Overall, the monogram is elegant and sophisticated.

4. H & F Bread Co.:

Their brand mark is artistic and elegant. It consists of the bread shop name in straight fonts combined with a line on the top and bottom. One feature that makes this image attractive is an abstract illustration of a bird with strains of wheat. The bright green color of the picture coupled with the sophisticated gray background makes it chic and contemporary.

5. Rustica:

Rustica has been named one of the Top 10 bread makers in America by the Bon AppÃ©tit Magazine. Their monogram consists of an image of the shop name in informal and artsy fonts that is encased in a polygon shape. The dark brown color of the pictures makes it earthy and basic.

6. Barrie Cullinan:

Their brand mark is a text based and simple. It consists of the shop name in black color over a transparent background. The informal and irregular fonts of the name make it comfortable and approachable. The white edges of the black colored text make it attractive. Overall, this image is chic and appealing.

7. Macrina:

They have the most unique trademark sign ever. It consists of a rough illustration of a girlâ€™s head combined with the business name. The illustration is encased in a rectangular shape. The entire free bakery logo design is crafted in black color with a green background which makes it elegant, stylish and funky.

In conclusion, we observe here that brown and green are popular colors for bread shop emblems. The images that have been used are crafty and attractive that is related to the product.
