Bluecrome Pvt Ltd is currently on top of the world, as the company will be completing its first year at the end of this month that is 31st of July 2012. And, it seems that the company is in no mood to make this affair a small one. Instead, it has been learnt that this software company of Navi Mumbai is leaving no stone unturned to make it first anniversary a grand one with loads of excitement and enjoyment.

It will be really a big day for the company as well as its staff, as completing a year in this highly competitive and day-to-day changing market world is not childâ€™s play. Also, the transformation of the company from a small industry with just 5 members during its launch to a considerable big one with more than hundred of clients is not been a free sailing one. But, it seems that all the hard work and the urge to excel in this area has paid off finally and this triumph is being celebrated by marking the successful completion of a year.

Currently, the company has more than 300 clients of local, national as well as international level and includes small or medium companies as well as corporate and professional ones. Bluecrome Pvt Ltd is aptly claimed to be an epithet of an intellectual restitution by its founder. The confidence and trust put in by their clients and partners is believed to make them achieve this incredible feat. Also, the great visionary prospect as well as implausible support of its amazing and high end team is worth a mention in the success story of this company.

Insights into the whacking commemoration of Bluecrome

The company is believed to mark the big bash of its first anniversary by carrying out a daylong celebration function for its clients as well as staff members, who are the major contributors to the successful one-year completion. The company has initiated its celebration journey by offering a wide range discounts (ranging from 10% - 20%) on its various effective and unique web services that include website hosting, domain registration, website designing and SEO.

The day will be commenced by shedding light on the one-year success story of the company and its overall performance and attainments. The day is believed to be filled with fun and exciting activities along with a soothing rap concert, felicitation ceremony, which is supposed to be followed by dinner. The company is also planning to provide some gifts bearing the companyâ€™s logo to all its employees and perpetual customers as a token of gratitude.
