Berrow Court- an ideal Wedding Venue by Berrow Court

Article published on March 16th 2012 | Weddings

Set in three acres of beautiful gardens our magnificent, grade II listed Victorian mansion is a premier Wedding Venue Birmingham. In the late eighties the house lay empty for several years, before the Parsons family acquired it and undertook the mammoth job of turning the house, and its gardens into the fabulous wedding venue available to you today.

As a family run business we are able to offer a more personal service and will go the extra mile to ensure everyone attending has a fantastic time.

When looking for a Wedding Venue Birmingham, one of your first questions is going to be "can I have it how I want it?" at Berrow Court we offer a bespoke service, individual tailored to your needs, so whether you are holding an intimate family wedding breakfast for 20 or a corporate meeting for 200, we have the ideal room to suit you.

The arts and craft decor style house, our beautiful gardens and airy conservatory all offer plenty of photo opportunities. Our aim is to make this not just your special day at our Wedding Venue Birmingham but your dream day, by offering a choice of uniquely different areas for you to choose from we have become one of the top Wedding Venues in Birmingham.

We know your wedding venue and reception needs to be as unique as you are.

Our Gold Room, which was named after its intricate gold decor, provides a beautiful airy room with large original opening windows, overlooking the lawns. This room has an original polished floor perfect for dancing and an open fire place, making ideal Wedding Venue Birmingham for civil ceremonies with up to 60 guests, in summer or winter.

Our Garden Room is a larger room which can hold up to 75 seated guests. This room also contains an open fire for winter weddings, while highly polished floors, beautifully laid tables and superb floral arrangements all go to make this room a first class Wedding Venue Birmingham choice for the larger group.

Our George Morris Room offers private dining for up to 22 seated guest and enjoys large bay windows for views of our lush and wonderful gardens. This room is perfect for smaller more wedding ceremonies or wedding breakfasts.

The bar is housed in the former library with many original books still lining the oak bookshelves. By creating a warming bar area in which to enjoy cocktails or wines we have created another wonderful room used for welcoming your guests to your perfect Wedding Venue Birmingham.

Our gardens with two large lawn areas are ideal to enjoy canapes and Champagne can be served from under the Gazebo. The terrace provides a seating area perfect for mingling and picture taking, with a stunning view of the grounds making this a favorite summer Wedding Venue Birmingham.

All our rooms can be converted to any style to suit your special occasion, celebratory meal, party, disco or even a garden party; we can accommodate your every need.
