Now, there could a number of bars such as log cabin bars, cave bars, bars in trees, on rivers, poolside bars, bars on beaches, bars on snow top mountains, and in the middle of a lake. So what is your perfect idea to get best hang outs ever??

However amongst all of the bars, an ice bar is the one you may or may not have heard of. An ice bar is an establishment that is primarily made of ice for drinking purposes. These bars typically contain ice figures and other ice shapes. All these are reserved at very low temperature to preserve them from being melted. These bars are often considered as a tourist destination but these are also famous for wedding parties and other celebrations. Ice Bars are made from tons of ice, inside the bar there could be a crystal structures, fireplaces, sofas and chairs, all engraved into beautiful designs on the ice. The drinks and the cocktails are provided in glasses molded from clear ice and are a special design created by a dealer. An Ice luge which is basically a large block of ice that has a fine channel engraved though it is used for serving the drinks.

Once beginning the tour in an ice bar, the patrons may require wearing Eskimo-like ice gears which can include insulated jackets, gloves and boots. In the interior the bar, one can find hand-crafted ice sculptures and furniture. The furniture is usually covered with deer skin. Various ice sculptures in the bar can be featured for decorations in some cuisines to enhance the appearance of the foods and in particular cold foods such as sea foods or sorbets. The ice carvings can also be used by hotel and large restaurants to embellish the buffet tables. Use of ice figures is also famous in cruise ship buffets. They are often used at wedding receptions for decorations.

The first and largest permanent ice bar in is Orlando, America. The ice sculptures in Orlando's ice bar are created by a Master Carver. He has won several awards in the international Ice Carving Olympics and also in Harbin, China at the world's biggest ice festival. It is made from over 50 tons of ice, the internal design features a crystal palace with throne, and chairs and couches ingeniously all carved into exquisite designs.

The Ice Bars are likely to be found in colder regions around the world, as it is easier to keep the ice steady in freezing temperatures. A number of ice bars are also located in larger cities all over the globe including Barcelona, Amsterdam, London, Paris, Athens, Hong Kong, Mumbai, SOHO Square, Saint-Petersburg, New Delhi, Tokyo, Thailand, Mexico City, Panama City, Orlando, and Dubai, as the cost of upkeep can be sustained by its many patrons. An ice bar experience is always delightful with its freezing temperature and lavish drinks.
