Spring Beach Wedding Ideas: Simple Tips for Memorable Spring Weddings by Kindra Leomiti

Article published on March 9th 2012 | Weddings

Springtime is one of the most romantic seasons of the yearâ€”during this time, colorful flowers start to bloom from their winter slumber and the sun shares its rays of warmth. Because of springtimeâ€™s beauty, a lot of couples prefer to be wed during this season. The lively and cheerful atmosphere of spring can certainly encourage lovebirds to match the floral bloom with the bloom of their lifetime vows.

It can be easier for couples to organize their weddings during spring time since the season offers clear and sunny weatherâ€”it will be safe to hold the wedding outdoors. Aside from that, guests can travel with much convenience. With nature as the backdrop, there is no need for couples to spend a lot of money on expensive wedding venues. In addition, since flowers are in season, every couple can easily buy the best blooms at affordable rates.

Although there are a lot of magnificent indoor venues at this time of the year, many couples prefer the scenic background that the spring season brings. This is one of the reasons why spring beach weddings are quite frequent. Getting married this way is as ideal as ideal gets, especially when the sun seems to give the union its blessing.

Few can beat the view of a couple pledging their undying love for each other against azure and tranquil waters. California, a state that is quite the beach country, is a popular destination for couples who like the idea of wedding by the ocean. These couples might find Monterey City, a coastal area in Central California, to their liking. There are many hotel resorts and other well-known wedding venues in Monterey CA that they can check out.

Farther down the coast is Newport, another favorite beach wedding destination in the state. Much like their counterparts over at Monterey, wedding venues in Napa Valley CA also consist of hotel resorts and other establishments one would usually find along the coast. If itâ€™s sand and surf that the bride and groom are after, the Golden State is one of the first places they should look at.

On the other hand, couples who are not in favor of beach weddings donâ€™t have to worryâ€”the friendly climate of spring is also perfect for garden and vineyard weddings. There are several wedding venues in Newport Beach CA and other areas in Wine Country that they can consider.
