We are coming up to the traditional wedding season. Spring is a wonderful time of a year to consider an outdoor wedding, prepare enough umbrellas for rain weather. The themes that go with spring also lend by themselves to romance using the best theme being a floral theme. The umbrella theme outdoor wedding is a great idea, colorful umbrellas can be lovely gifts, even though it is sunny.

One of the most colorful weddings to plan is a spring themed wedding. Spring is a great season to get married, wherein flowers are blooming and there; a lot of vibrant colors that can be used for a very special occasion. Spring symbolizes a new life, love and fertility which is why there are many couples who prefer getting married during the spring season.

In this article we will talk about simple and elegant spring wedding invitation ideas. Wedding invitations are important stationery for wedding that could represent the whole wedding. Although not mandatory, wedding invitations have become a significant part of every wedding. They have been an essential part for the preparation of the wedding, thus it pays to give them a proper attention. Especially today that most weddings are theme-based, you can easily carry out the reality of the message by simply using favors.

A floral theme wedding invitation is best for a romantic spring wedding. In the springtime, flowers are fresher, additional multi-colored than any other season of a year. You can pick one color or a color combo as your wedding colors, or you can have a main tone of the color.

For a spring wedding invitation, you can use many classic colors for the decorations and flowers such as white, black and pastel colors like pink, purple, green, yellow and red. Fresh spring colors such as peach, pink and yellow are also great choices for a spring wedding.

Be more into nature with birds, butterflies on your wedding invitations. Bring the theme onto the stationery by choosing whimsical wedding invitations like love birds design or bees buzzing design. You can also find card holders with silk butterflies, birds, or dragonflies that will clip the card. Be more creative to really pull out the theme.

Having a theme makes your wedding day more fun and memorable. It also helps because you can easily decide what decorations to use. Spring theme invites and other themed cards come in so many choices to choose from, which can be edible, decorative or useful.
