Wine tasting occasions can be a great for corporate and private events. In the corporate world, they can be perfect for client entertaining, team building exercises, business development, and networking or simply as a social occasion for employees. The corporate landscape recognises wine as forming a fundamental landscape in the business world and can add value in all the above scenarios.

Corporate Wine Tasting Events

Depending on the type of event you are holding, a wine tasting event can be a standalone occasion or integrated into an existing conference or event and will allow your clients or employees to enjoy your event in a fun and relaxed environment. There are many catering companies offering wine tasting events and companies also specialised in wine tasting itself, do your research online first in order to find the perfect company for your event.

Private Wine Tasting Events

Private events can be a unique way to entertain at home, choose from wine matching dinners or wine tasting events for birthdays, bringing friends together, hen or stag parties and much more. You can let many companies know your budget and what type of occasion it is and they will do the rest.

Depending on your wine tasting knowledge, you can choose from a variety of events, including an introduction to wine tasting. Youâ€™ll pick up tips and facts about wine, compare styles and grape varieties, and learn how to spot quality. Taste the wines blindfolded and try and guess what they are! You can also add a theme to the evening, for example focus your evening on Spanish food on wine, the choice is yours.

Private events donâ€™t have to be in the home, if youâ€™re organising an event in a special venue like a pub, restaurant or hotel, wine tasting companies are happy to take the event wherever you are.

Courses

If youâ€™re looking to focus more on learning about the wines, then a wine tasting course can provide a fun and great way to learn about them. Many courses include a talk which can be centred on the production of wine, modern wine trends, and the intricacies of food and wine pairing. You will then sample and scrutinise the wines. Courses are a great way to meet other wine lovers, and there are so many potential courses to choose from you will be able to choose one perfect for you.
