Stroopwafels a Health Friendly Tea Time Addition by James J. Steve

Article published on May 3rd 2012 | Wine

Everyone wants some change in routine fooding items. It is the human nature that we like some change in everything whether it may be the matter of food, clothes, living etc. Among all of these food has great importance. No one whether adult or kids can eat same thing daily.

All of us use snacks every day and expect new variety in it. If you have become bore with the traditional snacks and cakes, then Stroopwafels is surely good option. Stroopwafels is really amazing cookies of Dutch. These are called Syrup waffles or stroop syrup too. Stroopwafels are crispy and paper thin coaster along with sticky caramel. It is said that Napoleon created these to make France free from any type foreign sugar dependence. These extremely delicious cookies are now well-known universally. Even in Japan too, these are gaining mass recognition.

These fantastic cookies are called by many names like Syrup Waffle, Stroopies, Siroopwafels or Waffle cookies. Conventionally these cookies are enjoyed at teatime or coffee time. These are convenient to use so can be used outdoor also during picnics or holidays tours. The fantastic crispy cookies are available in many packs like Eight, Twenty or Forty.

As the popularity of Syrup Waffle is rising day by day, manufactures are presenting them in many flavors by doing some slight changes in ingredients. Coffee Cake Stroopwafels are available in very attractive packs which can be used for anytime gifting also. These are excellent servings at any party whether it is for kids or adults. The presence of these on the dining and beverage tables adds new style to traditional hosting. Most of people enjoy the presence of these waffles on tables because of the health friendly aspects. To ad variety, serve the waffles with different flavors. If the requirement is in bulk, the taste, size and aroma can be customized also. Storage life is enough long so you can buy the bigger packs to save more. We can easily store Stroopwafels for month in its jar. If you want to keep these for longer period, keeping in refrigerator wrapped in aluminum foils will be good enough.

Stroopwafels have been best selling cookies in supermarkets and city stores from many years because of their mouth watering taste. If you are unable to find its variety or packs according to your requirement at the nearby city store, make a search online. It would be the better option because here you will find many other brands also. Besides this, you get many other advantages of online shopping.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/wine-articles/stroopwafels-a-health-friendly-tea-time-addition.htm - Article Side

James J. Steve - About Author:
About the Author:- James J. Steve is writing the articles for coffeecakes. It offers gourmet gifts that include our best selling gourmet best coffee cake, fruit cakes, a target_new stroopwafel, coffee cup, ceramic travel mug, tea cups and much more.

Article Keywords:

stroopwafel, coffee cakes, fruit cakes, coffee cup, ceramic travel mug, tea cups

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!