As the fourth sign in the zodiac, cancer is a water sign ruled by the moon. Cancerians are those born between the month of June 20 and July 22. Like the crabs, people born in this month tend to develop a hard shell around them to protect themselves and to hide their feeling behind their wall of protection, when they are hurt or disappointed they tend to retreat in to their protective shell and will be un approachable for a period of time. People born in this sign tend to cling on to the past and have great difficulty in letting go. But at the same time they protect their loved ones, they have the tendency to nurture those who they protect. They tend to bait their opponent in to their territory, what might appear as a retreat to an outsider is the best aggressive tactic for a Cancer. Their biggest strength and stability is their home.

A cancer child is loving and with a photographic memory, a child will never forget anything easily especially an emotional event. They are sensitive to their surroundings; they can detect an unsettled atmosphere even as a child so it is important to have a home that is well-settled and serene for a cancer child. They enjoy comfortable surroundings from food to home, if they show a dislike for a particular vegetable of a toy, remove them and donâ€™t show them for some time since it is extremely difficult to change the child as it goes beyond the usual fuss or temper tantrum that a child creates. A cancer child will be extremely attached to the parents irrespective of them being good or bad and their influence cuts deeply in to them for their life. When the child gets older, he tends to preserve things he likes and going to a school may not suit a cancer child and takes time to get used to a new environment where he cannot be in the bosom of the family. He will be a compassionate and caring friend but they help friends only in the last minute after they had exhausted all their possibilities

Cancer adults will be very dedicated to their work. A cancerianâ€™s work place will be filled with pictures of home and relatives and they good at keeping their home and professional life separate. They have a natural intuition in deciphering how people around them feel; this makes them really good in the field of human resource, as trainers and medical personnel. They donâ€™t take well to change, they like their environment to be stable and consistent on a long run. Because of this, a cancer person will be a stable, strong and reliable employee and have a good relationship with others. Cancer has the tendency to associate money to security and stability.

In a relationship, a cancer will be caring, insightful and sentimental. They expect and demand complete honesty and fidelity, but there are chances for them to stray at times. But, his commitment will be to someone with whom he is rooted. They have a natural tendency to nurture, so they can be deeply caring to their loved ones who are their spouses or children. There are chances for other to feel that the attention that a cancer individual gives a bit overboard and invading privacy. There are times when they let their emotions rule their mind more than their sensibility which results in mood swings. The most suitable matches for cancer are Scorpio and Pisces. But sun signs like Taurus, Leo, Gemini will also work for them. Aries, Libra and Capricorn and a fellow Cancer have the least compatibility.
