The practical, patient, ambitious and fatalistic goats by Samantha Kirk

Article published on March 6th 2012 | Writing

Capricorns are symbolized by the sea goat and they are people born between 22nd December and 20th January. Capricorns are the most stable of all symbols and mostly are on the serious side. They donâ€™t delve on fantasies or build castles, they are extremely practical and calm. They donâ€™t gi in or give up when faced by a tough situation; they stand calm and have the strong will to fight the situation. They give and expect discipline from others.

Though they have respect for people above them, they have the tendency to not listen to othersâ€™ opinions on matters that they are directly responsible for. They set great expectations on people working under them and expect the best of results from them. They are disciplined and expect the same amount of discipline from their subordinates. Reliability will be a plus in a Capricorn worker. They are excellent finishers and complete any project given to them successfully. They are also excellent organizers; this enables them to multi task on several projects and finishes them successfully. They donâ€™t make one of the best colleagues as they are reserved. They like to stick with conservation rather than move on with innovation. At times, they relentlessly pursue their objectives and goals without giving any thought to family or work. They are careful planners and work constructively in achieving their goals.

They also tend to me pessimistic and melancholy when things donâ€™t go as they had planned and tend to show it on others. They tend to be moody and they have to take steps to consciously control their emotions. They can be witty at times, but at the same time spoil things by being flippant with their comments. They are not impulsive, they tend to think a lot before acting and take on other means only when there is no safe option available. They donâ€™t trust easily and are wary around people who they donâ€™t know well.

As a child, enjoys a routine and order and feel secure when everything is orderly. They donâ€™t display any bouts of temper and are usually even-tempered and a little reserved. They can be rather strong willed and trying what they want by wearing out their parents. They enjoy the company of older people and love playing grown-up. Capricorn children tend to have a handful of close friends rather than having a large group of social friends. They would prefer reading books to playing. One has to coax a Capricorn child to play outside as they not very keen on playing outside. They need to be encouraged to tell what is there in their minds as they tend to worry easily and they cannot bear to be teased.

As for a profession, Capricorns are good at anything that is related to math and money, this makes them excellent financiers, bankers, managers, contractors, etc their no-nonsense attitude also makes them excellent teachers, lecturers and principals as they can have an iron control without getting personal with people working under them. They also make good scientists and engineers and builders.

In a relationship, a Capricorn takes their time to love, but once they do they become the most reliable and loyal partners. They expect respect and admiration from their partners rather than devotion. Taurus and Virgo are the best compatibility signs for Capricorns. Aries and Leo are the least compatible signs for cancer as both signs are fiery with Aries being impulsive and Leo being equally independent. Nowadays, a lot of programs are on channels which are provided By Satellite TV providers telecast daily, weekly and monthly horoscope.
